Carefully read the description of the award – this will indicate the criteria upon which adjudication is based. If the award description has clearly stated criteria, your application should be tailored to the criteria as specified. If the description does not have clearly stated criteria, your application should focus on interpersonal skills, contributions to the MOT program (with examples) and contributions to the professions (with examples). However, you must ensure that each application is unique and does not simply repeat information provided in other applications.

(4133) OTDBASE Distant Fieldwork Award in Occupational Therapy
Eligibility:  MOT1 or MOT2	Awards totalling $1,200 have been endowed by Marilyn Ernest-Conibear, UBC alumna (B.S.R.1969, M.A. in Adult Education 1972) and Professor Emeritus of the University of Western Ontario, to assist promising students in Occupational Therapy with travel and accommodation costs for fieldwork education in remote or distant communities (interpreted as being a placement on Vancouver Island, in Northern or Interior British Columbia, or in an international setting). Candidates must apply in writing to the Department of Occupational Therapy. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Department.
