

Master of Occupational Therapy Program
Department of Occupational Science & Occupational Therapy
University of British Columbia

Scholarship Name: BC Graduate Student Scholarship

Student Name:

Student Number:

Date:

Mailing Address:

City:

Province:

Postal Code:

Email Address:

Telephone Number:

Carefully read the description of the scholarship – this will indicate the criteria upon which adjudication is based. If the scholarship description has clearly stated criteria, your application should be tailored to the criteria as specified. If the description does not have clearly stated criteria, your application should focus on interpersonal skills, contributions to the MOT program (with examples) and contributions to the professions (with examples). However, you must ensure that each application is unique and does not simply repeat information provided in other applications.

(6768) BC Graduate Student Scholarship
Eligibility: MOT1 or MOT2	This one-time award (available this year only), which is valued at $15,000 is intended to attract and retain the best and brightest graduate students and expand B.C.'s research capacity. These awards are only available to Canadian citizens and Permanent Residents. To apply for this award, which is open to MOT 1 and MOT 2 students, applicants write a statement of 300 words or less explaining why you deserve this scholarship. The main criteria for this award are academic excellence, research capacity, leadership and service.
Value: $15,000

Application forms are to be submitted to David at david.tsukada@ubc.ca by 4:00 PM on June 19, 2020.

In the space below, write a statement of 300 words or less explaining why you deserve this scholarship. If the scholarship description has clearly stated criteria, your application should be tailored to the criteria as specified. If the description does not have clearly stated criteria, your application should focus on your interpersonal skills, contributions to the MOT program (with examples) and contributions to the professions (with examples). However, you must ensure that each application is unique and does not simply repeat information provided in other applications. Do not include activities in which you were involved before entering the program. Incomplete applications, applications received after the deadline, or applications that exceed the word limit will not be considered. Scholarships will be adjudicated to students who fall within the top 10 of their class based on overall GPA.

Describe in 300 words or less why you deserve this scholarship and how you meet the criteria:

Word Count: